

2022 Central Mass Horse Show Series

Classic Class Specs

Classic Classes – All classics are pinned to 8th place and the 1st place winner will also be awarded a cooler, or an embroidered chair, with the name of the classic embroidered on it. Due to the potential of canceling classes for lack of entries, the year is no longer printed on the coolers so that they may be used the following year as needed.

Minimum of 3 entries needed to run each classic. Upon winning a classic class the rider is not eligible to compete in that classic again until the following year

Camp Marshall Gamblers Choice Classic – Open to all riders, fences 2’-2’3”. Riders may not cross enter into any Hunter/Equitation Classes exceeding 2’3”, at any show, CMHSS or otherwise.

Lead Line Suitability Classic - Open to riders 7 and under who have never shown walk trot. Must be on the lead line the entire class, to be led walk trot. May be asked to complete additional tasks such as halt and reverse etc.

Hunter Challenge Classic – Open to all hunt riders, Fences 2’. Riders may not cross enter into any other division where fences exceed 2’, at any show, CMHSS or otherwise.

Pleasure Classic – Open to all riders in English or Western tack. To be shown at the walk, trot and canter and may be asked to perform additional work such as halt, reverse, turn on the forehand etc.

Walk Trot Classic – Open to all walk trot riders in English or Western tack. Top riders may be asked to perform additional work or tests/patterns.

Camp Marshall Equestrian Center Open Crossrails Classic - Open to all riders, fences set at 18". Riders may not cross enter in any Hunter/Equitation Divisions where the fence height exceeds 18”.

Equitation Classic - Open to all riders in English or Western tack. To be shown at the walk, trot, and canter and top riders may be asked to perform additional work or patterns/tests.

Gambler's Choice Classic 18" - Open to all riders, fences set at 18”. Riders may not cross enter in any Hunter/Equitation Division where the fence height exceeds 18”.